

Life Sciences Achievement Award

exceleRx

Philadelphia, PA

exceleRx is a rapidly growing, technology-based medication management company providing prescription medication consultation, comprehensive unique integrated clinical pharmacotherapy web-based documentation, and prescription product services to specialty markets throughout the United States. The company focuses on Hospice Pharmacia for hospice patients, Pain Rxperts for pain clinics, and MedRxperts for solid-organ transplant patients and clinics.

www.excellerx.com

Criteria: Company must have at least two years of operating results.

Key Considerations: Company must demonstrate product or service innovation and its potential impact on the market; product growth; ability to raise capital; ability to generate revenue; development strategy; clinical pathway to development; ability to commercialize and strategize to enter into substantive strategic alliances; experience of management team.

Sponsor:

Left: Barbara Schilberg, CEO, BioAdvance

Right: Calvin H. Knowlton, CEO, exceleRx